

Charge of the Senior Noncommissioned Officer

You are charged with developing the people under supervision into a cohesive team

You are charged with ensuring the personnel which you are responsible are technically trained and qualified, and afforded the opportunity to attend the appropriate levels PME courses to acquire leadership and management skills

You are charged with remaining alert to detect adverse morale trends and provide feedback to commanders, immediate supervisor, and officers.

You are charged with establishing and maintaining rapport and communicating with subordinates to remain attuned to their needs.

You are charged with ensuring that enlisted members are treated fairly by all agencies and activities, both on and off base.

You are charged with taking the lead in achieving maintaining and enforcing Air Force standards, as well as good order and discipline